1. Play indoor games

There are plenty of fun indoor games that you can play with your dog, such as fetch, hide-and-seek, and tug-of-war. These games will help to keep your dog entertained and exercised, and they can also be a great way to bond with your furry friend.

2. Watch a movie or TV show

If you're looking for a more relaxing activity, you can curl up on the couch with your dog and watch a movie or TV show. This is a great way to spend some quality time together and relax after a long day.

3. Read a book

If you're in the mood for something more educational, you can read a book to your dog. This is a great way to help your dog learn new words and concepts, and it can also be a calming and relaxing activity.

4. Take a nap

If you're both feeling tired, you can take a nap together. This is a great way to recharge your batteries and get ready for whatever the hurricane brings.

5. Give your dog a massage

A massage is a great way to relax your dog and help them feel more comfortable. You can use your hands or a massage brush to gently massage your dog's muscles. This can help to relieve tension and promote relaxation.

6. Play with toys

If your dog has any toys, now is a great time to let them play with them. This is a great way for your dog to get some exercise and have some fun.

7. Go for a walk

If the weather is permitting, you can take your dog for a walk. However, it's important to stay close to home and be aware of your surroundings. Hurricanes can bring strong winds and rain, so it's important to be careful.

8. Cook a meal for your dog

If you're feeling creative, you can cook a meal for your dog. There are many different recipes available online, but you can also make up your own. This is a great way to show your dog how much you care.

9. Make a hurricane preparedness kit

It's important to be prepared for anything, even a hurricane. You should have a hurricane preparedness kit that includes food, water, and other essential supplies. This will help to ensure that you and your dog have everything you need in the event of a hurricane.

10. Stay calm

The most important thing to do during a hurricane watch is to stay calm. Hurricanes can be scary, but it's important to remember that you and your dog will be safe if you take the proper precautions. By following these tips, you can help to make your hurricane watch a safe and enjoyable experience for you and your furry friend.
